Welcome to Your Herbal Journey

Feel the Connection

Get closer to plants that heal

Simple & Powerful

Time-tested remedies at your fingertips

Start Small

Even a pot on a windowsill works

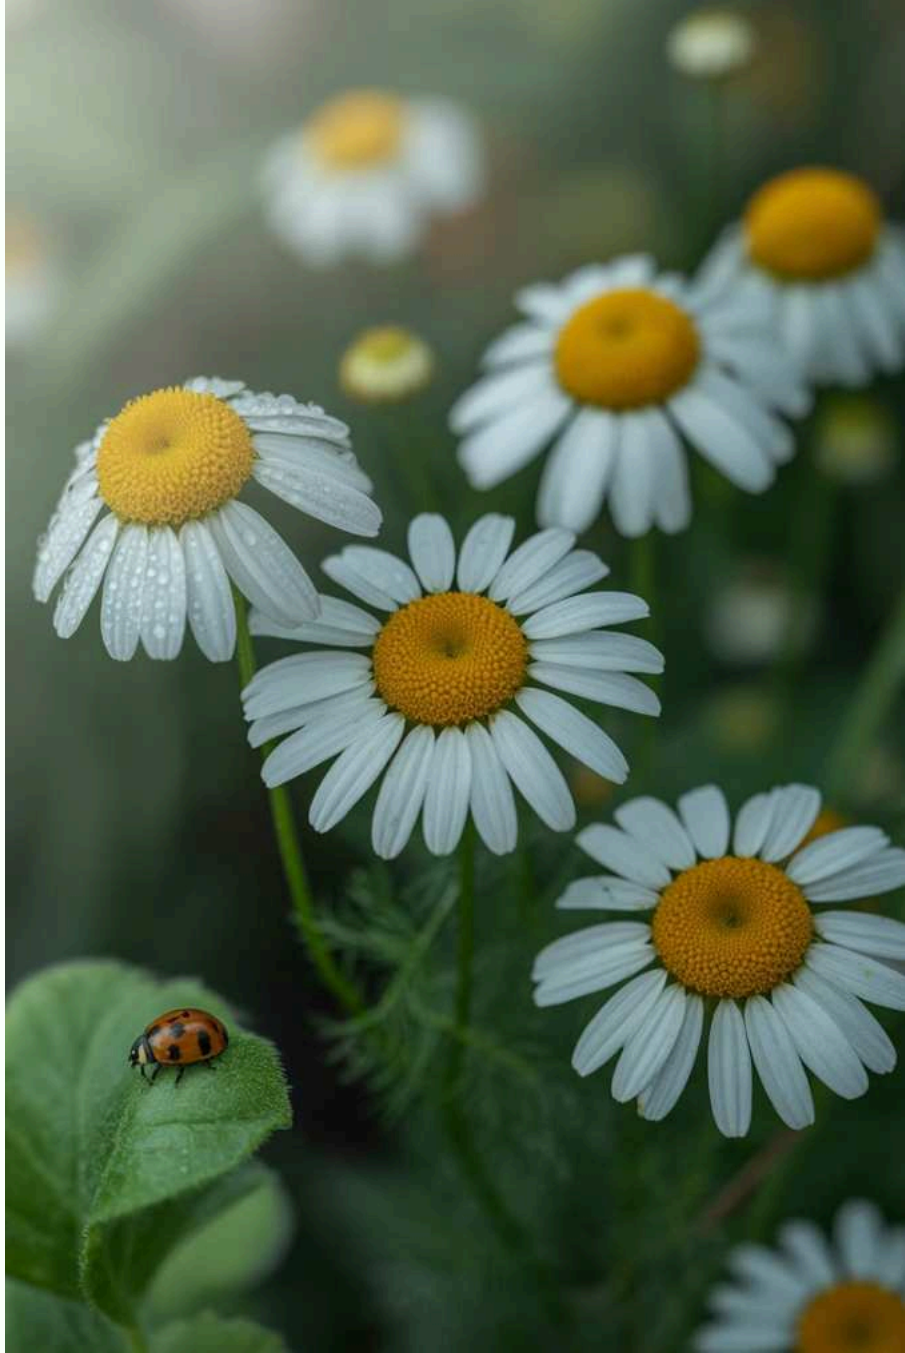

Chamomile: The Gentle Healer

Calms nerves + supports sleep

Grows easily in sunny pots

Pick flowers, dry for tea or oil

Harvest blooms mid-morning when fully open

Calendula: Nature's Skin Soother

Helps heal wounds, rashes, inflammation

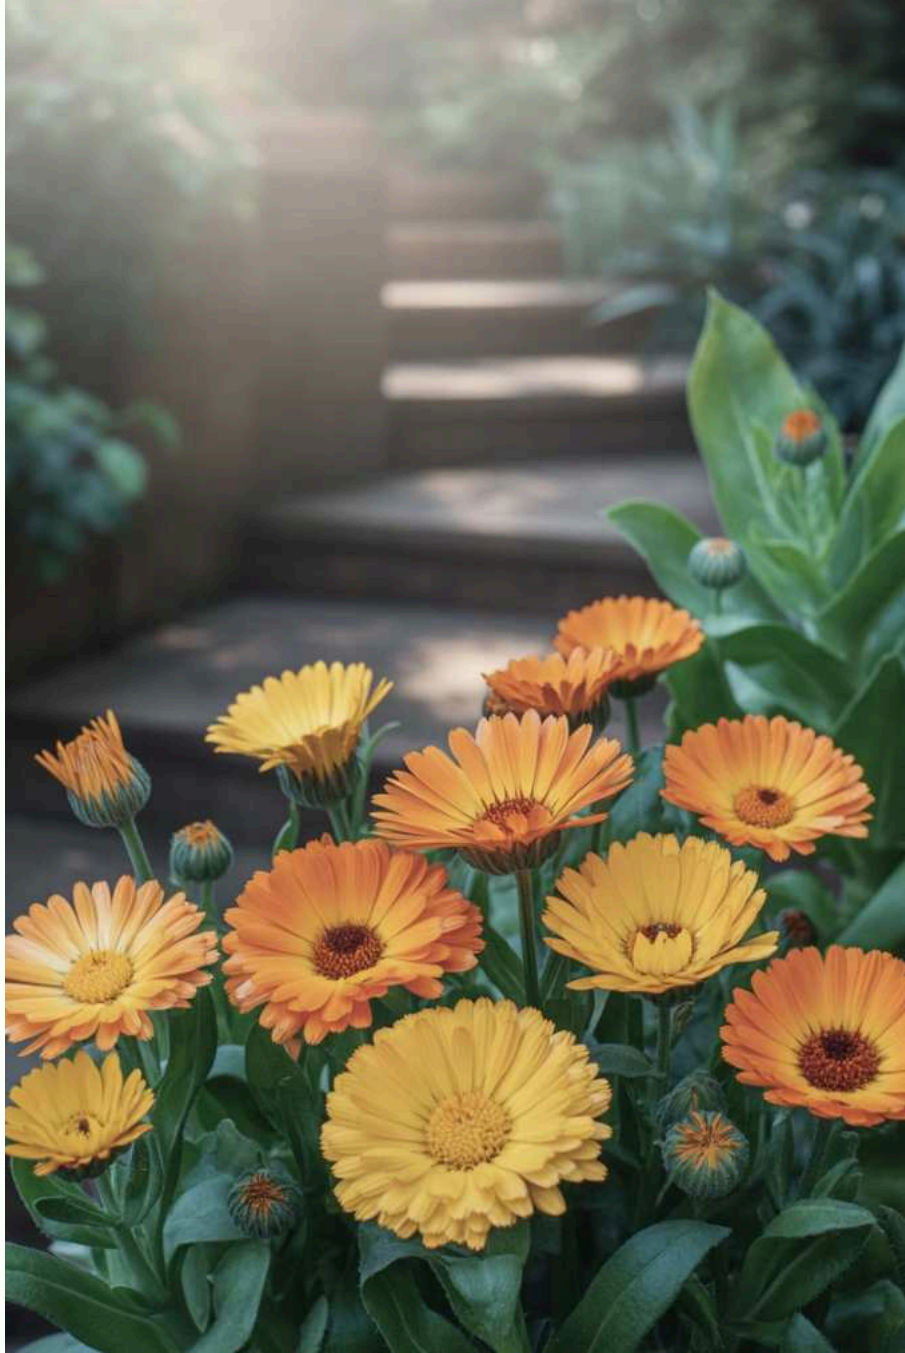

Natural first aid in your garden

Blooms endlessly with sun + love

Keep harvesting for continued flowers

Use petals in oil, salves, or tea

Petals stain oil golden - that's the good stuff

Lavender: For Stress and Sacred Space

Aromatic, relaxing, beautiful

Needs dry soil + full sun

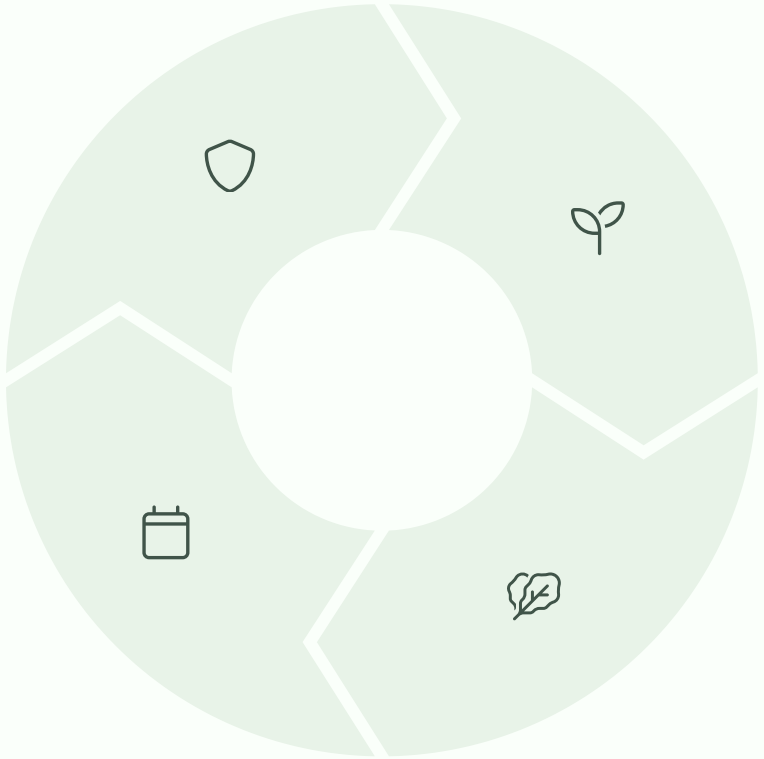

Use in bath soaks, tea, sachets

Dry upside-down in bunches for best scent

Echinacea: Your Immune Defender

Known for cold + flu support

Grow in sunny bed or deep pot

Let it flower first year, harvest roots in year two

Tea from petals, tincture from roots

Moringa: The Superleaf

Boosts energy, hormones, nutrients

Natural multivitamin in leaf form

Loves warmth + fast-draining soil

Trim regularly for bushier growth

Use leaves in tea, smoothies, powder
